One member in particular, William McMichael, who weighs 350 pounds, and has been compelled to use crutches, says he was fully healed. He has thrown his crutches away and walks perfectly without them.

At this meeting a young woman that has used crutches for eight years discarded them and left the church walking as perfectly as she ever did.

ROMANTIC STORY

Comes to Light as a Result of a Lawsuit in Illinois.

Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 16.—A case now in progress in the circuit court of this city reveals a romantic story and may cast light on events which caused a sensation in business circles of Cleveland a few years ago.

Miss Olga Greenwalt, the very pretty daughter of a prominent business man of this city, and the heiress to one-fifth of the large estate of her father, became engaged to J. H. Whitney of Cleveland, a bookkeeper for Daykin Brothers, plumbers of that city.

In 1893 Daykin Brothers' store burned, and before the firm's books were examined Whitney disappeared. It was alleged he was an embezzler to the extent of $10,000, and it was soon discovered that he had gone to Honolulu.

It is alleged that Miss Greenwalt, in order to save her fiancé from prosecution, transferred property worth $6,000 to make good Whitney's alleged shortage. Miss Greenwalt is said to have followed Whitney to Honolulu.

"Honorable Co-operation."

Minneapolis, Feb. 16.—Senator Marion Butler and ex-Senator Dubois arrived here to attend the Populist conference. Senator Butler said the purpose was to bring about not fusion, but "honorable co-operation." He did not think the so-called middle-of-the-roads, which was only one in a thousand, would stand out against it. The situation in Minnesota is so similar to that in many other western states that the decision of the state conference will be looked upon as forming a precedent for action.

Gone Into Voluntary Liquidation.

Boston, Feb. 16.—By a vote of 8,670 out of 10,000 shares the National City bank of Boston was placed in voluntary liquidation at a special meeting held here. ## THE TIDE IS TURNING.

Some Strong Testimony Given In Favor of Zola.

HE MIGHT BE EXONERATED.

Experts Declare Esterhazy Wrote the Bordereau and That Dreyfus Is Innocent of the Crime Charged to Him.

Paris, Feb. 16.—M. Crepleux Janin, handwriting expert who testified in the Zola trial, denied that he attempted to bribe M. Teyssonnières to modify his reports of the Dreyfus bordereau.

M. Teyssonnières, M. Crepleux Janin added, had declared that it was on his (Teyssonnières') report, and not on M. Bertillon's which Dreyfus was convicted. This statement caused a sensation. M. Janin added that it was because M. Teyssonnières was angry with the witness for not sharing his opinion in regard to the Dreyfus case that he tried to compromise the matter. The witness further said he followed the profession of a dentist, not that of an expert in handwriting.

Director Meyer of the French record office declared that the published facsimiles of the bordereau were as exact as possible, and he thought that General Pelleux's contention that the facsimiles looked like forgeries was an exaggeration. Witness admitted that he had acted wrongly in intrusting the examination of the bordereau to M. Bertillon, who, he asserted, had acted in a manner devoid of all sense. M. Meyer said that the handwriting of Major Esterhazy resembled that of the bordereau.

Professor Ernest Moutinier of the College of France testified that Major Esterhazy's handwriting absolutely resembled that of the bordereau.

M. Clemenceau, counsel for The Aurora, read letters from Madame De Baulancy, admitting the possession of letters which Major Esterhazy wrote her between 1881 and 1894, and containing serious animadversions on France and the French army.

M. Clemenceau urged the court to appoint a magistrate to ask Mme. Baulancy if among the letters there was not one containing the following expressions:

First—"General Saussier [then the commander-in-chief of the French army and military governor of Paris] is a clown. In our country the Germans would not show him in a circus." (Uproar in court.)

Second—"If the Prussians got as far as Lyons they might throw away their guns and keep only their riding whips to drive the French in front of them." (Prolonged sensation.)

Three amateur experts in handwriting testified that the facsimile was an exact reproduction of Major Esterhazy's handwriting—statements which caused further sensations in court.

M. Felix Frank, a lawyer of Brussels, demonstrated his testimony on a blackboard. He declared Esterhazy was the author of the bordereau.

Returned Bullets For Snowballs.

Guthrie of the First Universalist church has made to a sermon on "Suicides" preached by Rev. R. ### In the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 16.—A resolution of inquiry offered by Mr. Harris of Kansas precipitated a spirited discussion of the Pacific railway in the senate.

The resolution called upon the attorney general for the reasons which induced him to abandon his plan of redeeming the first mortgage bonds of the Kansas Pacific branch of the Union Pacific and having the road operated by a receiver.

Mr. Harris denounced the present plan to sell the road at the bid of the reorganization committee as defrauding the government of something more than $6,000,000.

Mr. Foraker explained the view taken of the matter by the administration, showing the president was convinced the reorganization committee proposed to pay for the road all it was worth.

The resolution was finally passed in amended form.

Allen's Prosperity Story.

Representative Allen, of Mississippi, told a story in the house the other day which strikingly illustrates the situation from the Democratic standpoint. Here is the story as it appears in the Congressional Record:

"An old darky caught a 'possum, dressed him nicely, put him in the oven, covered him with sweet potatoes and then lay down to sleep while the 'possum baked. When the 'possum was done another darky came along and ate him up. Then he took the bones and laid them alongside the sleeping nigger, took some of the grease and greased the sleeper's fingers and lips, and then sneaked away. Presently the old darky awoke, looked about him. There were the bones and the grease on his fingers and lips and the oven was empty. Said the old man to himself, 'Can it be possible I ate that 'possum while I was asleep? Maybe I did, but if so that 'possum had less effect on my constitution than any I ever ate before.'"

When the laughter provoked by this story had subsided Mr. Allen remarked addressing the Republican side: "You tell us about the return of prosperity, you produce your figures and it looks like you are telling the truth, but if so this prosperity certainly has had less effect on our constitution than any we ever saw before."

NOT NOT A CITIZEN

New German Civil Code Bars Out Habitual Drinkers.

[Exchange.]

Temperance reformers will observe with interest some of the provisions of the new German civil code, says the New York Tribune, which is to go into force in the last year of this century. These exclude from the ordinary rights and privileges of citizenship all persons who through inebriety are unable to provide for themselves and their families or who bring themselves or their family into danger of want, or who imperil the safety of others. Briefly stated, no sot can be a citizen.

It may be that by the end of 1900 some other nations will want to follow Germany's example.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Important Measure Pending Concerning
the Liquor Traffic—New Bills Introduced.

Tuesday was bill day in the House and they came from every quarter, regardless of the fact that the end of the session is in sight.

Among the important new measures offered were:

An act repealing the section of the insurance law which prohibits agents from giving rebates on insurance policies.

Requiring county supervisors of roads to be elected by vote of the people.

Amending fourth-class city charters, allowing liens on property for street improvements, etc.

Act for protection to dogs and adding $2 tax.

Act amending the code, preventing suit for settlement of the estate before nine months after death of deceased.

Repealing the primary election law.

Providing punishment for the father of bastards.

Appropriating $5,400 to buy land for Lakeland Asylum.

In the Senate the following new bills were introduced:

An act regulating the practice in civil cases so that warning orders shall stand for trial at the term at which defendant is warned to defend.

An act prohibiting banks and trust companies from paying interest on deposits of money or issuing interest bearing certificates of money deposits.

There was a lively fight in the Senate over the Roberts prohibition bill that had been reported favorably, and the Senate adjourned pending the discussion. The bill makes the county instead of the precinct the unit in local option elections. Under the proposed law, if a majority of the voters in a county vote "dry," then liquor traffic in the entire county would be prohibited.

DON'T LIKE IT.

The Postoffice Fight at Paris Has Stirred
Up Lots of Trouble in the G.
O. P. Camp.

PARIS, KY., Feb. 14.—When the news reached this quiet city yesterday that Senator Deboe had agreed to recommend J. L. Bosley's appointment as postmaster at Paris, with Sherman Stivers as deputy, great surprise and indignation was manifested on all sides.

The truth is that both of these men were under obligations to friends here, and it could not be satisfactorily explained how they could agree to combine and deceive their friends who had assisted them in this place.

Many telegrams have gone to President McKinley protesting against Bosley's appointment, and he has no indorsement to speak of from the Republicans of the county. Instead of bringing harmony to the party it has widened the breach and has developed a strong fight on the part of the workers in the Republican party, as well as those of the sound money Democrats.

Wants Some "Yaller Dogs."

Flemingsburg Gazette: "Mr. W. G. Dearing owns a young orchard near Bald Hill, in this county, containing six to eight thousand young fruit trees. That section of the country is also noted for its prolific rabbit crop, and the bunnies have been feasting on the bark of the young trees until Mr. Dearing has exhausted his wits to stop the damage. Some one has informed him of a sure remedy for the trouble, however, which is simply a "yaller dog" to be tied to each tree. Mr. Dearing is buying all the dogs he can secure, and if the crop of canines only holds out the war between Mr. Rabbitt and Mr. Dog will wax warm and furious for the next few weeks. In the meantime persons having a surplus of dogs should address (but not call on) Mr. Dearing."

He preached the funeral discourse of the late Rev. J. B. Glorieux, of this city, and was one of the most eloquent priests in this diocese.

A DISPATCH from Paris says: "A mule belonging to Nat Rogers died under peculiar circumstances. The animal, after suffering from convulsions, rushed into a pond and was drowned. A post-mortem was held, the examination revealing that a mouse was in the animal's brain. It is thought the mouse crawled up the mule's nose while the animal was eating."

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of Messrs. A. M. J. and William D. Cochran, assignees, offering at public sale the valuable farm of Mr. George Wood, Sr., containing about 475 acres and situated near Washington, and also his personal property. The farm is one of the most desirable in Mason County, being within a few miles of Maysville and on the Hill City pike, the best free road in the county. For particulars see advertisement.

WOMEN are not the only ones who are sensitive about their ages. A man doesn't like to be told that he is getting old. Health keeps a man young. It doesn't make any difference if he has lived eighty years. If they have been healthy years, he will be hale and hearty and not look within twenty years as old as he is. Good digestion and rich, red blood make people look youthful. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes rich, red blood. It makes health in the right way. It works according to the right theory, and in 30 years of practice, it has proved that the theory is absolutely correct. It begins at the beginning—begins by putting the stomach, liver and bowels into perfect order, but it begins its good work on the blood before it finishes with the digestive system. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be and forces them out of the body. All druggists keep the "Discovery."

THE TAJ MAHAL.

The Tourists Go Sight-Seeing at Home—Mr. McIlvain's Interesting Collection of Curios.

Your correspondent, with several members of the Tourist Club, had quite an unexpected treat Tuesday morning, which we regard something in the nature of a "find," as so few know of the treasure within our gates. In our course of study their was mention of the Taj Mahal, the tomb built by Emperor Shah Jahan over the remains of his favorite wife, Mumtaz Mahal, at Agra. It is considered one of the seven modern wonders of the world. When we were told that Mr. W. W. McIlvain had among the curios collected during his travels a realistic reproduction of the temple in miniature, we lost no time in approaching the gentleman upon the subject, and were most cordially invited (at our own earnest suggestion) to inspect the treasure.

Next to the Alhambra, the Taj Mahal is the finest specimen of the Saracenic art in architecture extant. One quite realizes this in looking at the lace-like traceries and grilles, more like a frost work palace on a window pane than the work of human hands in marble. Indeed I think Mr. McIlvain owns the seventh wonder of the world, rather than Agra. It seems a fairy's dream in sea-foam—anything but what it is, marble. To speak of the miniature domes and minarets, and things I don't know the names of, would give little idea of its wonderfulness. It must be seen to be appreciated.

But this is only one item in a cabinet of rare curiosities, from ostrich eggs to the genuine war clubs and boomerangs, from the dreadful looking creatures who wear their earrings in their noses. I do not recall if Mr. McIlvain said that he wrested these weapons from their owners or not, but he must have learned to throw the boomerangs,—because they came back, and now repose in peace in Maysville.

I cannot pass over the magnificent collection of photographs, evincing the connoisseur in the choosing, and representing things of interest the world around, over which days should have been spent instead of moments.

Your correspondent was raised within two hours' ride of Corcoran's Art Gallery, Smithsonian Institution and the National Museum of Washington, and knows their contents by heart, but will make bold to say that nothing approaching the Taj Mahal for historical interest, wonder of execution and mere beauty can be found in any of them.

A Warning to Money- Savers!

Our one-third-off-the-regular-price sale will positively close on the 15th of this month. To date this sale has proven the greatest we ever inaugurated. It is true that many of our finest garments were sold at actually less than cost. We have the proud satisfaction of knowing that the public believes in our newspaper statements.

It would be to our interest to stop our one-third-off sale now, as we were relieved of an enormous quantity of merchandize in the past ten days, but we said the sale will continue until the 15th of February, and we always do what we say we will. It will be your loss, not ours, if you do not avail yourself of the opportunity to buy the best of Clothing for less money than you buy the ordinary goods elsewhere.

ACADEMY READING CIRCLE.

A Lecture on Greek Literature by Rev. A. T. Ennis—The Circle's Work.

On last Friday, the Academy Reading Circle of St. Francis de Sales' Academy enjoyed a rare treat in the form of a lecture on the study of Greek literature, delivered by Rev. A. T. Ennis. If the scholarly attainments of this reverend gentleman were not already well known, this lecture would have proved them beyond a doubt. The manner in which the remarkable lecturer handled this difficult theme displayed not only a thorough knowledge of Greek literature, but a remarkable facility in the use of the English language.

The members of the A. R. C. look forward to a similar intellectual feast in the near future.

The A. R. C. is composed of the former pupils of St. Francis de Sales', and the present senior and graduating classes. Although not often heard from, it is doing some excellent work as the papers of the members, on subjects connected with Greek history, sufficiently testify. After a careful study of the history, they are now entering upon the interesting subject of Greek literature.

CHARLES RANDOLPH, Bill Jackson, alias Joe Day, Will Fant, Seaton Alexander, all colored, were fined a dollar and costs each by Squire Grant Tuesday on charge of breach of the peace. Five others were acquitted.

COMMITTEE'S APPEAL.

Maysville Property Owners Asked to Aid Washington Fire Company—Subscriptions to Date.

The following is self-explanatory:
To the Property Owners and Citizens of Maysville:
On Sunday morning, January 30th, the Washington Fire Company lost by fire their home together with the opera house upon which they depended for their support and upon which our citizens depended for an amusement hall. In the destruction of the building there went up in smoke and flame the hard earnings of the company, covering a period of forty-eight years and amounting to over $12,000. They are now without shelter and without a single dollar—nothing left save their honor. The firemen of our city have always been faithful to duty in saving our property, and upon many occasions have saved our city from total destruction. It is now proposed, and due them, to rebuild their home, and for this purpose a subscription has been started and a liberal amount secured. Will you be one to assist in this effort by a subscription? Respectfully,

THOMAS A. DAVIS,
ALEX. CALHOUN,
J. D. DYE,
WM. H. COX,
HORACE J. COCHRAN.

Every property owner in the city is directly interested in this matter, and a liberal response to this appeal will enable the company to begin the work of rebuilding as soon as spring opens.

If you have not subscribed and desire to do so, send your name either to the Bulletin or to any of the above committee, stating amount.

MAYSLEICK.

While during the season there has been occasion to regret a general ill condition of health throughout the county, there is an added regret that Mayslick and vicinity has seemed the especial target for la grippe and kindred maladies, scarcely a household permitted to escape visitation. To have the usual good health of friends and neighbors so disturbed is assuredly something to be deplored, but it is doubly grievous when one who comes among us for the first time, and one whose aim and purpose, already manifest, is to labor for the good and spiritual help of church and community, should be so early subjected to the disabling influences of a dread visitant. A trial of this nature has been experienced in the fact that the talented and able young minister, Rev. Mr. Taubman, who entered upon the pastorate of Mayslick Christian Church early in January, has for a fortnight been suffering almost prostration from la grippe. Like a true soldier of the Master's cause however, Mr. Taubman labored on, though physical strength was only weakness, lifting, swaying his good sized attentive audience as with words of zeal and eloquence, he set forth the sublimest of truths. Now the writer is pleased to note his almost recovery. Mr. Taubman, although so short a time with his present charge, has steadily grown in favor. It seems altogether safe to predict that under his pastorate, the historic old church has entered upon a new era of usefulness and prosperity. His preaching is unquestionably with power; rapid, fluent and scholarly in speech, graceful in appearance and delivery, appealing to heart as well as intellect. It should be a source of thankfulness to Mayslick Church that she has chosen so wisely.

IN MEMORIAM.

Burtie A. Mastin was born March 27th, 1873, and died January 16th, 1898. He joined the Methodist Church when about nine years old. He was the only son of Squire Sam Mastin. His mother was a Miss Pumphely. To mention his parentage is enough to inform a large circle of friends of the excellency of his birth. He was a young man of magnetic force and with many commendable traits. From a child he was tender-hearted and affectionate. As son he was obedient and trustworthy. As brother to the sisters who survive him he was tender yet strong in love. I was told by his father that he never found guilty of telling him a falsehood. This alone is enough to give a note of praise to his memory. His aunt said when he was small that he promised never to drink, and that he claimed in his last illness that he had been faithful. This ought, in the midst of his young associates, to be a John the Baptist message. He was not as true to the church as he said that he was, for he had been for a few years previous to his last sickness, but the Father of Mercies granted him time to return, and as the shadows gathered the "Son of Righteousness" with healing in his beams arose upon his path till "righteousness and peace" were the last words of commendation disappeared. He expressed a desire to be spared, to serve God and help his young friends, but said that he was perfectly resigned to the will of God. For the last few days he turned preacher and warned and invited those who were out of Christ. We trust that the fruit of these few days will be as a tree planted by the river of living waters. Just about six weeks before we laid the dust of his mother and an infant that had preceded her about twenty years away in the Salem church yard, where we deposited the mortal remains of Burtie. To know him was to admire and love him. May the bereaved be comforted by him who said "In my Father's house are many mansions." J. D. REDD.

Lightning Hot Drops—What a Funny Name! Very True, but it Kills All Pain! Sold Everywhere, Every Day—Without Relief, There is No Pay!

A Few Truths.
If a man never makes mistakes he never makes anything.
A man with a pull gets ahead faster than the man with a push.
A wise man always bows to the inevitable; a fool kicks against fate and thus injures only himself.
Most people would be content with their lot if it were a lot of money.
Many a girl who marries a man because she thinks other girls want him wishes they had him before she has been wed a month.
